

INDICATIONS POINT TO SUCCESS OF M'KINLEY

The Heaviest Vote on Record is Being Polled in All Parts of the Country—Ideal Weather Prevails Generally.

CRY OF FRAUD RAISED EARLY IN INDIANA

Quiet Election in Badger State—Long Strings of Voters in Line in the Big Cities—McKinley and Bryan Vote—Election News.

New York, Nov. 6.—Cool, clear weather this morning brought out the voters in hosts. Ballots are being cast one every minute. There is practically no scratching and quiet prevails all over the city. Croker was up early and cast his ballot shortly after six o'clock returning to Tammany hall where he remains during the day. Up state points report unusual alacrity on the part of voters with fine weather.

CLEAR AND CRISP WEATHER.

Sheriffs and Police Are Antagonistic in the City of St. Louis.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—The general interest in the campaign was shown this morning by a heavy and early vote. The weather is clear and crisp. Twelve hundred warrants for alleged fraudulent registration are issued to deputy sheriffs who at variance with the democratic police. One sheriff was arrested early. The normal republican majority in St. Louis is sixteen thousand.

BRYAN CASTS HIS VOTE EARLY.

Ideal Weather in Nebraska—Bryan Has Faith in Croker.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—The weather is perfect and a large vote is being polled. Bryan arrived from Omaha at ten fifteen and securing a certificate of registration from the city clerk he cast his ballot. There is considerable betting on the gubernatorial contest, the republicans showing money that Poynter won't be re-elected. Bryan has faith in Croker carrying New York and Jones Ohio.

VERY HEAVY VOTE IN CHICAGO.

Long Lines of Citizens in Front of Every Polling Booth.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Long before the

BOB LA FOLLETTE SPEAKS AT MADISON

Close of His Campaign Last Night—Great Enthusiasm Manifested in His Home City.

Madison, Nov. 6.—[Special]—Robert M. La Follette closed his canvass for the governorship of Wisconsin last night in this city before an audience that taxed the capacity of the University gymnasium. The enthusiasm which met "Little Bob" in his home town, equalled anything seen here in years. An escort of several hundred students and local citizens, arrayed with flags and torch lights and accompanied by two bands formed at the gymnasium and marched around the capitol square, returning with the speaker of the evening.

Emerson Ellis, president of the University republican club, introduced the speaker, who was greeted by the yell, "U'rah! U'rah! U'rah! Let's let it!" The candidate first dealt with the state issues, raised by the republican party, of equalization of taxes and primary reform. The balance of his speech, which lasted over two hours, was devoted to the national issues of prosperity, trusts, finance and expansion. Mr. La Follette spoke with great physical difficulty. The great strain of the campaign was evident in his weakened voice.

Nevertheless, the vast audience accorded him the closest attention and frequent and prolonged applause. The meeting was enthusiastic from the beginning throughout, and was a fitting close to the state campaign.

The Republican club has representatives at the polls in the University precincts, ready to confront the democratic challengers of student voters. The student vote will be quite heavy, the democratic attempt at intimidation having been thoroughly defeated by the republican workers.

Monument to Quinine Discoverers.

While the international congress of pharmacy was in session in Paris a monument was unveiled there to Bertrand Pelletier and J. B. Caventon, the renowned pharmaceutical chemists, who may be said to have discovered quinine. In 1820 they gave, to the world the result of their investigations.

IN THE VOTERS' HANDS.

Managers of Two Leading Parties Leave Their Shops.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—William McKinley and William J. Bryan are in the hands of the voter today. The man with the ballot will settle the dispute which has been raging for some months. The election returns will show which side made the best guess. The scores of local candidates who are trailing after the Republican and Democratic nominees for president closed their campaign shops yesterday, the desks and typewriters were moved away and the campaign of 1900 died quietly. Senator Mark Hanna said "Good-by" to the "help" around the Republican national headquarters and took the train to Cleveland, where he voted today as he has been fighting for some months. Senator J. K. Jones, who has been leading the Democratic fight, saw Senator Hanna leave the hotel and drew a deep sigh of relief.

LIVES WITH A BROKEN NECK.

Government Clerk Injured Playing Football May Recover.

New York, Nov. 6.—John McQuade, a clerk in the war department, is lying in the Emergency hospital, his life in the balance, says a Washington special to the World. The doctor says there is an even chance he may live.

RELIABLE ELECTION RETURNS AT GAZETTE OFFICE TONIGHT

The earliest election news, national, state and county, will be displayed by stereopticons from The Gazette building, Main street, tonight.

The public will be furnished with the earliest reports received from The Gazette's special correspondents, special attention being paid to the returns from the pivotal states.

Hundreds of pictures will be displayed during the waits.

The service of the Western Union, Postal, Scripps-McRea League, Associated Press and Wisconsin and Rock County telephones will be used, besides figures of special correspondents at Chicago and Milwaukee.

Everybody invited to see the truth in figures.

McQuade, who is 19 years old, was formerly a student at Georgetown university. He enlisted as a volunteer at the outbreak of the Spanish war, and when he returned home accepted a position in the war department. He was an enthusiastic football player.

Sunday, some of the young men of the neighborhood organized two scrub elevens and started a game. A number of skilled players were engaged, and the sport soon became very fast. On a fumble, McQuade caught the ball and started for the opposite goal. He was tackled hard, and came directly down on his head. Several players fell on him, and when he was lifted from the ground his head fell back upon his shoulders, his neck having been broken.

The doctors at the hospital are taking a great interest in the case, and if McQuade has strength enough to stand the operations they are contemplating there is hope that he will live.

QUEEN OF PORTUGAL A HEROINE

She Plunges Into Water and Rescues a Boatman.

New York, Nov. 6.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Lisbon says that the queen of Portugal, at Cascais, a fashionable seaside resort, today made a thrilling rescue. She has been staying at the royal palace at Cascais and was on the beach watching Catalao Croom, her boatman, bringing his boat in to shore. Suddenly a huge wave overturned the boat. Croom's arm was broken and he was overcome by the undertow, which carried him beneath the waves.

The queen is an expert swimmer, and seeing that her boatman was drowning she sprang into the sea in her clothing before any of her attendants could prevent her. With rapid strokes she swam to the boatman's side and held him up until persons on shore put out in boats and rescued both the queen and the boatman. Croom was taken to the royal palace.

Women's Walk on a Wager.

Mme. Alma Keldseth, widow of a journalist, has for a wager just traveled from Christiania to Paris on foot and started without either food or money. On the way she crossed Sweden, Denmark, Germany and part of France. She walked twelve hours a day and at night would call at a farm and offer to work for her board and lodging. Directly she had earned a little money she started again, and in turn she mended clothes, did washing and acted as governess.

SILENT VOTE WILL SETTLE ELECTION

POWER OF UNKNOWN QUANTITY IN POLITICAL WORLD.

Everyday Man Will Be Felt at the Polls—Closing Claims Made—The Managers of Both the Big Parties Express Great Confidence of Victory.

The plain American citizen has the center of the stage today. The curtain fell last night on the campaign managers with their imposing titles and portentous statements, on the dispensers of red fire, on the marching club spear carriers, on all who have strutted in the lime light with them. Even the candidates are as mere men in the voting booths today.

John Doe and Richard Roe with their unnamed millions of brothers and cousins throughout the nation will be moistening stubby lead pencils on their tongues during daylight to perform their quadrennial feat of saving the country. Soon after sunset they will have decided who shall hold the onces from president of the United States down to the office of county surveyor. Not since elections were invented have these untitled sovereigns had a better chance to demonstrate their importance.

Keen Interest Exists.

The campaign just closed has been of almost unparalleled quietness in all parts of the country. The tours of Mr. Bryan and Governor Roosevelt were the only features worthy of note. These were not strikingly novel except as examples of physical endurance. Yet the keen interest now manifested in the outcome has seldom been exceeded. This seemingly paradoxical condition is the natural result of the character of the campaign.

The silent vote has been the unknown quantity. Political managers of tried astuteness have fruitlessly exhausted their systems of algebra trying to find its value. For a time after the campaign opened they accounted for it under the head of general apathy.

The Silent Vote to Decide.

Today the silent vote will speak for itself. The presidency of the United States and the determination of the policies which shall obtain for four years in a nation of nearly 77,000,000 depend upon what it says.

If it be admitted that the claims of rival campaign managers have equal force in the absence of proof, then a larger number of states and a larger number of electoral votes are hanging in the balance than were ever known in the history of the country.

Both democrats and republicans lay unconditional, unqualified, absolute claim to 145 electoral votes distributed among the nine states—Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, West Virginia, and New Jersey. Indeed three more states with fifteen more electoral votes, making a total of 180 could be added to the list—North Dakota, South Dakota and California.

It is apparent, therefore, that John Doe and Richard Roe have the chance of their lives.

New Implement for Soldiers.

An implement to be added to the soldier's kit, which can be used as spade, pick-ax or saw, and also as a shield for protection from bullets, has been invented by the Earl of Wemyss. It is said that the contrivance is to be adopted by the British army.

A Peculiar Lake.

Lake Morat, in Switzerland, has the curious property of turning red every ten years, owing to the presence of certain aquatic plants which are not known in any other lake in the world.

ELOPEMENT ENDS IN DEATH.

W. J. Linn Kills Mrs. Joseph Shafer Wife of a Farmer.

Lacon, Ill., Nov. 6.—W. J. Linn went to the home of Joseph Shafer, who resides ten miles west of this city and when the door was opened shot Mrs. Shafer dead. He also shot at Mr. Shafer, but missed him. Joseph Shafer is a farmer. A month ago a young man giving his name as Jack Gordon but whose real name is W. J. Linn and who worked as a farm hand in the neighborhood, eloped with Shafer's wife. A few days later the couple returned, and that night Linn was waited on by a band of Whitecaps, who dragged him from the house and ordered him to leave the country or suffer the consequences. He went to Peoria, and a day or two later the woman followed. Saturday Shafer went to Peoria and induced his wife to come home with him. This morning Linn appeared at the Shafer home and when the door was opened he shot and killed Mrs. Shafer. A second shot aimed at the husband missed its mark. Linn was arrested a few hours later in Wyoming, twelve miles distant, and is now in jail in this city. There is strong feeling against him and some talk of lynching.

DEATH AROUSES SUSPICION.

Cincinnati Authorities Are Investigating Charges of Murder.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—Coroner Schwab yesterday ordered an investigation of the recent death of Myrtle Teetors of Lockland, a northern suburb. Mayor Mullen and Marshal Steward of Lockland, had previously investigated the case and preferred charges to the coroner against Leonard Edwards Blanks, who married Miss Wade, aged fifteen; Miss Teetors, aged fifteen, and Mrs. Caroline Lindley, aged forty-nine, in close succession.

Mrs. Lindley was the aunt of Miss Wade, and the step-grandmother of Miss Teetors, who died October 1 at the house of Mrs. Lindley, when it is alleged that whisky was administered by Blanks. After this young wife died Blanks took Miss Wade, equally young, as his wife and they lived with Mrs. Lindley.

BRINGS CREW FROM WRECK.

Cunarder Saxonia Arrives at Liverpool After Sinking a Schooner.

Liverpool, Nov. 6.—The Cunarder Saxonia arrived here today, having on board fifteen of the crew of the fishing schooner Maria Mosquita, belonging to the port of Gloucester, Mass. The schooner was sunk in a collision with the liner during a fog sixty miles east of Boston, Oct. 27. With the exception of one sailor who jumped from the rigging and was drowned, the crew, consisting chiefly of Portuguese, was saved. The men will be sent home on the Cunarder Ultonia, which sails for Boston tomorrow. When the collision took place the Boston schooner had over 50,000 fish on board, the result of 12 days' work.

FEAR FOR FATE OF TWO DUCK HUNTERS

Myron Baker and Louis Larson of Weyauwega, Wis., Missing—Searching Parties Out.

Weyauwega, Wis., Nov. 6.—Myron Baker and Louis Larson of this place went duck hunting yesterday and are supposed to have been drowned as they have not returned and searching parties have found their boat capsized in Patridge Lake this forenoon. Baker is a young grocer about thirty years old and unmarried. Larson was twenty-two years old.

The Largest Kitchen in the World.

This is in the great Parisian store the Bon Marche, which has 4,000 employees. The smallest kitchen contains 100 quarts and the largest 500. Each of fifty roasting-pans is big enough for 300 cutlets. Every dish for baking potatoes holds 225 pounds. When omelets are on the bill of fare 7,800 eggs used at once. For cooking alone sixty cooks and 100 assistants are always at the ranges.

A Botanical Expedition.

In the interest of the Berlin Museum Drs. L. Diehl and E. Pritzl have undertaken a botanical expedition to the little known western parts of Australia, and Dr. Uie has gone to the sources of the Amazon to make botanical collections and to study the gutta-percha plant.

Minneapolis Cuts Out Skating.

The Minneapolis park board has decided, in the interest of economy, to let the snow remain on the park lawns during the coming winter, and consequently there will be no skating on these pools as heretofore. The young men and women of the city talk of holding an indignation meeting.

Gasoline.

Gasoline is a colorless volatile, inflammable product of the distillation of crude petroleum, having a specific gravity of .629 to .667. It is used as fuel in vapor stoves and for carbonizing air and water gases. The vapor arising from gasoline, when mixed with the atmosphere in proper proportion, is one of the most dangerous explosives.

RIOT IN DENVER, TWO MEN KILLED

Partisanship Runs High in the Capital City of Colorado.

BLOOD AT THE POLLS

Roughs Attempt to Get Inside the Line, and Are Forceably Ejected.

STILL MORE TROUBLE FEARED

Denver, Nov. 6.—Two men were killed and four wounded at the polling place on 22nd and Larimer streets, this morning.

The dead:

Officer Carpenter.

John Brandford, (colored.)

Wounded:

Stuart Harvey (white).

Richard Hardman; Deputy Charles Green and Special Policeman Hamilton Jackson, (colored.)

The polling place is in a tough section. An early crowd of roughs attempted to get beyond the limit line and when the officers began to push them back Brandford fired killing Carpenter.

Immediately a fusillade began.

Intense excitement prevailed. It is feared a general riot would follow but fifty police soon present stopped further damage.

FATAL RIOT AT BRAZIL, IND.

Wallace Graves Instantly Killed and Seven Men Injured.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 6.—At Caseyville this morning a riot was participated in a saloon over politics. Fifty joined the fight and two hundred shots were fired. Wallace Graves was instantly killed; William Houston and seven others were injured. No arrests yet made.

POLICE CHIEF OF GOTHAM INDICTED

Devery Forced to Abandon Plan to Block State Deputies—Roosevelt Warns Van Wyck.

New York, Nov. 6.—Chief of Police Devery was indicted yesterday by the grand jury on the charge of felony, because of an order he had issued to his men to resist any interference of State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh or his deputies at the polls tomorrow and then by a lightning change act tonight, the chief rescinded his previous order.

The change of front was all brought about by Governor Roosevelt. Until yesterday morning the chief and his Tammany friends were tolerably defiant, but Governor Roosevelt sent a communication to Mayor Van Wyck saying he (the governor) would hold the mayor personally responsible for any violence at the polls tomorrow.

The mayor immediately consulted with the other city officials and the Tammany men. They were in conference for some time and afterward the mayor went to police headquarters and gave Chief Devery a written order directing him to rescind his objectionable order of Saturday night. The chief then issued the order as demanded by the mayor, and it was read to the men in the various precincts at the roll call last night.

The indictment of Chief Devery was secured without the knowledge or consent of District Attorney Asa Bird Gardiner, although his name appears in the papers. Colonel Gardiner says that the indictment will not hold. Croker says that it is an outrage.

The indictment was issued upon an order issued by Chief Devery on Sunday night informing the uniformed police force that "tactics and methods of intimidation have been perpetrated upon respectable citizens by John McCullagh," and it is the duty of policemen "to protect the honest right and franchise of every citizen."

Max Schoenfeld, a former Philadelphian, now a resident of Rorschach, Switzerland, has given $10,000 to the National Farm School of Doylestown, Pa., to be used in the purchase of farms, which are to be rented to the graduates of the school, thereby giving them an opportunity of demonstrating the value of the instruction they have received and the capability of Jewish youth to gain support by agriculture.

Unusual Conduct Between Acts.

Quite a commotion was caused in New York city the other evening when nearly the entire audience that had assembled at the Lyceum theater left their seats between acts and strolled in couples along the Fourth Avenue sidewalk. Oppressive heat caused the exodus, and the curious sight attracted hundreds of wondering idlers.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM ROCK COUNTY

CRANDALL-COON WEDDING NO. TABLE EVENT AT MILTON.

New Lodge of Good Templars Was Organized in Milton.—Notes from Newark, Johnstown, Union, LaPrairie, Lima and Other Towns in This County.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
W. W. CLARKE, Manager,
Milton, Wis., Nov. 5, 1900.

A very pretty home wedding took place on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crandall on College street, when their daughter, Miss Nellie Bird Crandall was united in marriage to Floyd B. Coon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Platts in the presence of a large party of friends and relatives, after which a substantial lunch was served. The bride and groom have rented rooms in Mrs. Sarah Burdick's house on Madison avenue where they are now at home to their many friends. The gifts that graced the occasion were both numerous and costly. Everybody wishes them much joy.

A lodge of Good Templars was organized here last Thursday night by District Deputy George Hansen and the following officers were elected: C. T. Rev. T. W. North; V. T. Miss Mabel Maxon; P. C. T. W. A. McEwan; Secretary, F. C. Wells; Asst. Secy., Mrs. A. Shuman; F. S. Miss Lucile Hansen; Treas., Miss Nettie Carey; Marshall, C. L. Davy; Deputy Marshall, Miss Dahl Ridsdon; Guard, Miss Lizzie Jackson; Sentinel, L. A. Miller; Lodge Deputy, George Hansen. ## LAYING THE TRACK WITH A MACHINE

AN INTERESTING APPARATUS
USED BY ST. PAUL ROAD.

Track Laying on the Janesville & Southeastern Progressing Through This City—Description of the Machine That is Doing This Work—Crew of One Hundred Men.

Track laying on the Janesville & Southeastern railroad was completed yesterday over that portion of the road that runs within the city limits. Yesterday morning at eight o'clock a crew of one hundred men, a special train and a track laying apparatus commenced the work near Center avenue.

When darkness put a stop to the work the steel rails had been laid to the city limits near the Paul farm, and this was all accomplished in about eight hours' time. A large crowd of spectators watched the work throughout the day. The track laying device proved most interesting. This apparatus is not a machine as many suppose, but is a flat car provided with rollers and other patent devices that make what is known as the Harris Patent Track Layer.

This car holds the first place on the train. In its rear are four flat cars loaded with steel rails. Next come eight flat cars heavily loaded with ties.

Next is attached a bolt car and then a tool car. In the rear is the locomotive that pushes this special train. The cars in this train are attached with a miniature track on which runs a small dump car that hauls the ties from the rear car where it dumps them in front of the track layer. A dozen men on the steel rail cars are kept busy bolting two of the thirty foot steel rails together.

One man gives all the orders and everything moves like clockwork. The first thing on the program is the moving of the dump car that comes from the tie cars over the steel rail cars to the edge of the track layer when it strikes with force a dumping device that throws the load of ties forward to the ground.

Here fifty men are stationed. They quickly take these ties and distribute them ahead in places that have been marked. Then off come the four steel rails that have been bolted in pairs making sixty foot rails. They slide along on iron rollers that lower them as they advance towards the ground.

Twenty-five feet in front of the track layer is a small dumping device on which is an iron roller. Here the end of the rails rest and run along until the other end leaves the track layer. The fifty men now take hold of the rail and as the order is given they drop it on the ties. Then they place it in position and then in less time than it takes to tell it the bolting crew have it securely fastened. Then the train moves forward on this newly laid track and the same performance is repeated.

The track layers will average a mile and three quarters a day. The crew now at work arrived in the city Sunday night from Darien where they have been at work on the same line of road.

The crew board in their own cars which are now sidetracked in this city. From this city the track will be laid towards Emerald Grove for a distance of six and one-half miles. Here a stop will be necessary until the contractors open a deep stone cut.

The rails being used are extra heavy measuring two and one-half inches across the top. They are made by the Illinois steel company and are the same as used on all through lines.

The track laying crew are in charge of Foreman W. F. Boland and Supt. of Construction William Baker. The train is in charge of Conductor H. Williams of Milwaukee.

FILIPINOS WANT BRYAN ELECTED

INTERESTING LETTER FROM CHARLES F. CANIFF.

It Seems to Him the United States Government is Too Easy with the Natives on the Philippine Islands—A Hazardous Trip on a Steamer to Manila.

Manila, P. I., Oct. 9.—Editor Gazette—I will try and give a slight description of our trip from 'Frisco to Manila as I saw it. We left pier No. 12 at 12 a. m. of the 21st of August. We had on board 1900 people.

We lost a day when we crossed the 180th degree meridian, west longitude, August 29th. The next day was August 31st. All the exercise we got on board was twenty minutes double time around the top deck. We have been averaging between 290 and 300 miles every twenty-four hours.

On Sept. 6th we passed through the strait of Sangon with every city of Jesse on our right. The shore was lined with Japanese fishing craft. We entered the outer harbor of Nagasaki and were quarantined for about four hours. Then we were turned into the inner harbor where we were anchored. Most of us were broke but I managed to borrow a small sum and started for shore in a sampan, which took five cents of our money and ten sen, Japanese.

I finally landed in Nagasaki. Everything looked odd to me. The low thatched Japanese and the large European and American hotels side by side looked extremely odd. Most of the streets were narrow, being from ten to twenty feet wide. A stranger would get lost there after dark as there is a scarcity of street lights. I visited a French Catholic school, probably the largest building in the city, also an English speaking school.

One of the best places to spend an hour is in the tea gardens. I loitered too long in sight seeing and had to climb up the anchor chains to get on board without being seen, an experience I don't care to repeat, as the chain is slippery and I am no climber.

Our vessel was coaled up by Japanese men and women who form a line from the coal barges to the bunkers in the ship and pass small baskets of coal from one to the other. They put over 3,600 tons aboard in two days and a half. Tuesday at 6 p. m. we sailed out of the harbor for the Philippines.

The second night out of Nagasaki we headed into a typhoon and for forty-eight hours I thought it was all off with us. The hatchways were all fastened down and every one but the sailors were confined below for over thirty-six hours. The hold was full of men, boxes, mess kits, blankets, rolls, trunks and other articles bounding around with every roll of the ship making like miserable and sore heads plentiful.

There were several ladies aboard and one of them was washed out of her berth and clear across the deck and when picked up was unconscious. Every wave leaped clear over the top of the decks.

Monday, Sept. 17th, we anchored in Manila Bay, after spending twenty-seven hours at sea. Sept. 18th we embarked in Philippine. After a four-mile march we went into barracks. They are about 300 feet long, 40 feet wide. The roof and side walls are made of palm leaves and the floor of split bamboo about half an inch apart. The frame is of large bamboo and is fastened together with large cane splints. The only nails used in the building are in the floor.

It seems to me that the United States government is too easy with the natives, but of course we have not been here long enough to know much about the situation. The Filipinos here seem to think Bryan will be elected and then they will gain their freedom.

Winter Garment?

The best assortment of the latest styles in garments can be found right here.

We are receiving novelties often, new things that are the correct creations.

Box back medium and long coats we show in a large variety of styles and colors.

Our $10.00 Kersey Jacket, 22-inch, strap seam, Skinner satin lining, coat back, are not approached by competitors. Have this jacket in black and colors.

Misses' Garments, just what any miss would desire. Enough of them and at prices that command attention.

Stunning things in automobiles in red, some with triple capes. Prices, $3 to $18.

Children can be easily fitted out from our great stock. Bring them in and we will make prices satisfactory—$2.50 to $15.

CAPE—Of these we have fully 300. Elderly women have been especially thought of. For them we have long Kersey Capes in plain or relieved by braiding, applique, fur, &c. Beautiful black capes with real marten collars and edging. Extra good values in Golf Capes for women and misses, plush capes plain and trimmed, wool astrachan, &c.

THE RIGHT WAIST

Rightly knitted of the best material they wear best and do not stretch; rightly taped they carry all the strain from the shoulders and do away with that draggy feeling; rightly priced they are economical to buy. Their very points of superiority are about what you have long desired to obtain for your children. ASK TO SEE THEM.

No other store here sells these Waists. Mothers who have bought them have nothing but words of praise for the M Waists. They give satisfaction.

FURS—By far the largest line of Furs at this store. Our Astrakhan fur Jackets at $25.00 are not matched elsewhere.

Length, 24-inch; Skinner satin lining, selected lining. Astrakhan Capes, 30-inch Skinner lining, wonders at $15. Beautiful Near-Seal Jackets, $50 to $80. Scarf bargains at $5; imitation bearfur, head, tail and claws, with chain fastener, extra long and very full; you'll pay $7 about as quick.

Guinea Hen Flannels—We bought 30 pieces in brown, blue and gray several months ago. They are 30 inches wide, soft and extra heavy; 12½c value at—10c.

SENATOR DAVIS WILL RECOVER

Physicians Perform Second Operation on Foot, Finding Conditions Not So Serious as Supposed.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—Dr. A. J. Stone and Lancaster of this city and Murphy of Chicago performed an operation on Senator C. K. Davis' foot for the draining of the poisonous matter from an abscess in the sole of the foot, which had not been discovered until Saturday, his former trouble having been confined to the base of one toe.

This new abscess, together with the fact that he felt severe pains in his ankle, led to the fear that the infection was spreading and that an amputation might be necessary to save his life.

This morning Dr. A. J. Stone, the physician in charge, said the slight operation on the senator's foot showed it to be in a much better condition than either he or Dr. Murphy had expected to find it. The senator had revived from the slight operation in good shape and he considered him the "tne liveliest corpse in the United States senate today."

Cushman Kellogg Davis was born in Henderson, N. Y., June 13, 1838. His parents removed to Waukesha, Wis., the following year, and there, when not working upon the farm, young Davis attended the district school and took a partial course in Carroll College.

The foundations of his legal education were laid in a year's course at Ann Arbor under Judge Cooley. Upon his return from Ann Arbor he was taken in charge by Alexander Randall, Postmaster General under President Johnson, who had his law office at Waukesha.

In 1862 Davis went to the front with the Twenty-eighth Wisconsin Infantry as a second lieutenant, and, after two years of service, during which he participated with the Army of the Tennessee in the Vicksburg and other campaigns, was forced to resign on account of his severe attack of fever.

He removed to Minnesota in 1864 after visiting a number of states in search of health. When he settled in St. Paul illness had so far reduced him that he weighed only ninety-seven pounds. His health was restored in three years sufficiently to enable him to practice law, and one of his first cases was the trial of "Van Solan for murder. Davis secured an acquittal of the case which attracted national interest on account of its peculiar features. The trial gave him the reputation which brought him a large practice.

His political career began in 1867, when he was elected to the legislature from a democratic stronghold. Next year he was appointed United States District Attorney, and held that office until 1873, when he resigned to become the republican candidate for governor.

He served the one-year term as governor, and inaugurated many reforms which had been promised in the platform upon which he was elected. One of the most important of these was the curtailment of the ruinous privileges given railroads.

He declined the renomination for governor, and participated in politics only as advisor and speaker.

In 1887 Mr. Davis was first elected to the seat in the United States senate which he still holds.

Expedition Traversed 13,000 Miles.
The African traveler, Major Gibbons, has been heard from through Reuter to the effect that he reached Omdurman on August 20, the expedition having traversed 13,000 miles. Some of the objects attained were the mapping of Barotseland, the accomplishment of the first steam navigation of the middle Zambezi, the tracing of the whole course of the river, the discovery of its source, and the determination of its watershed.

Colombian Rebels Active.
Kingston, Nov. 6.—Advices from Colombia say that the rebels are active along the Magdalena river and that the liberals are gaining strength. With business paralyzed and a decreasing revenue, the government, it is asserted, stands a poor chance of soon crushing the rebellion. Ex-President San Clemente, who was imprisoned by Senor Marroquin, the president, is still a prisoner and in ill-health.

A CASE OF EXTRAVAGANCE.

YOU never cut off three-quarters of a new cake of soap and throw it away! Yet you pay twice the price of Ivory Soap for a cake of "tinted" toilet soap less than half as large. Your little cake of toilet soap costs you four times the price of Ivory, for it lasts only half as long and costs twice as much. No money can buy purer or better soap than Ivory. If it came in dainty paper, all scented and colored, you would pay fifteen cents for a very small cake of it.

Cuneiform Tablets to Be Translated.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6.—Dr. Herman V. Hillprecht, the famous Assyriologist of the University of Pennsylvania who made the startling discovery at Nippur, Babylonia, is making arrangements to translate the large number of cuneiform tablets and inscriptions secured during the last twelve years. Their translation will be begun at once under the superintendence of Dr. Hillprecht and his assistant, Dr. A. T. Clay.

Hanna's Train Kills S. Friend.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Samuel Friend of this city was instantly killed at Twentieth street by Senator Hanna's special train, which was taking him to South Chicago on the Illinois Central tracks. Mr. Friend was 67 years old, and had been in the dry goods commission business in Chicago for twenty years, having come to Chicago from Milwaukee. The members of the firm of Friend Bros. of that city are his brothers.

BEYOND DOUBT.

These Facts Must Convince Every Janesville Reader.

That which follows is the experience of a resident of Janesville. Incredulity cannot exist about the statement because it can easily be investigated.

Mr. H. P. Hanson, of 103 Pleasant S engineer, employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with a lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's drug store and taking them I felt better slept better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

MR. BRYAN'S WARNING

"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1896.

THE BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS.

Volumes have been spoken and written during the campaign that closes today in a battle royal unlike the field of battle where one nation meets another in deadly strife the battle that has raged today has been a silent one, conducted with rare exception in a gentlemanly way, not on any particular field, but in every city hamlet, and rural district throughout the length and breadth of the land.

A battle where the general and private have stood shoulder to shoulder, each armed with the same weapon and sharing equal responsibility.

A battle that recognizes neither rich nor poor, high or low; bearing a proclamation so broad that every man has been reminded of his duty and in the fulfillment of it has discharged a sacred obligation.

A battle in which for months every preparation has been carefully made, and every contestant thoroughly equipped.

A battle far reaching in its results, where men have met with intense determination, yet powerless to deal more than a single stroke. A battle where victor and vanquished will be members of the same household tomorrow, living in peaceable possession, the minority bowing to the will of the majority without question, and both working together for new conquests on the more important battle field of life.

There is something majestic about the battle of the ballots in this land of 76,000,000 people, where every man is his own sovereign, free to speak and do as he will, so long as the rights of others are respected. The land where every man is a law unto himself, possessing absolute freedom, so long as he recognizes the unwritten law of humanity and justice, the governing power of American civilization.

The American ballot possesses a wonderful significance; its power should be more thoroughly appreciated and the right to use it untrammelled and without coercion, should extend to every corner of the country.

When the nation arrives at its best estate, as it will in due time, the right of suffrage will then be an undisputed right, and new and broader significance will be given to the battle of the ballot.

The result of today's election will determine some things regarding Kentucky, among the most important, whether Goebelism shall continue to control the state. Kentucky has gone back a decade in a year, and unless she reforms and becomes law abiding the fair state will be slow to recover.

President Kruger, of the late South African republic, is having hard work to find a home for his old age. The United States has been a refuge for oppressed people from almost every land. The old gentleman may decide to spend his few remaining years on American soil.

The world will continue to move whether McKinley or Bryan is elected today but it will move easier for some people in this country if McKinley is continued in office.

Salt river is a favorite resort for defeated candidates. It looks as though Bryan, Adlai and Bohmrich were ticked for the next installment.

The large cities will many of them go for Bryan today, but the larger country will round up the McKinley majority.

The vote of today will show that the gold democrats are not followers of Croker, Hill & Company.

The patient voter and the tired orator will now take a rest.

Chinese Versus American Dress.

In matters of dress, of course, the women of the western world differ conspicuously from those of the east. Here styles are changing constantly with the years and seasons, almost with the days. In the east it is not so. The cut and style remain the same; novelty is not sought in fabrics—silks are most used. These are richly embroidered, both the undergarments and the overgarments. The women of China are skillful needlewomen and most of the work on their clothes is done at home. Among the poorer classes woolen and cotton are used for the coarser working garments. The shape of the garments is designed to cover the person, not to fit it tightly, and beauty is secured in the texture and embroidery instead of from odd shapes and frills and furbelows.

There is no such thing as low neck and short sleeves in China, and it is a long established custom that the folds of the garment must be quite ample. The trousers worn by us a Chinese woman deems indispensable to modest attire. When American, French, English—your civilized women—visit our country I cannot say which feature of their dress shocks Chinese women most, whether the décolleté cut of the evening bodice or the fact that they wear no trousers. I have read of your dress reformers who advocate bloomers, and how immodest this is thought to be. Here if the bloomers covered the leg to the ankle Chinese women would regard them a vast improvement on your present style of apparel—Mme. Wu in Harper's Bazar.

Sachet Powder of Dried Rose Leaves.

Among flowers the scent of the fragrant "common rose" is a favorite. To make a sachet powder the petals should be plucked separately and strung on a piece of white cotton, allowing a little space between each. Hang up in a shady open place for about a week, and if at the end of that time they have dried sufficiently to crumble into a powder they may be removed, powdered and put up into sachets, otherwise they must hang till perfectly dry and crisp. Care must be taken to prevent the sun shining on the petals, otherwise the oil in them which contains the scent is drawn away. These powders should retain their scent for a long time, owing to the scented oil of the flower being dried in the particles.

Women in Photography.

Miss Frances Benjamin Johnston of Washington will read a paper before the international congress of photography at Paris this summer on the "Work of the Women of the United States in Photography." Miss Johnston is one of the two women delegates to the congress. She has made a study of photography as a means of illustration from an artistic and mechanical standpoint. She was the first photographer to give to the world photographs of the frescoes in the Congressional library, having taken them from the scaffolding.

Revolutionized Legal Instruction.

Christopher Columbus Langdell, the retiring dean of the Harvard law school, was the first to revolutionize the old methods of legal instruction and substitute the case system for text books. He is 74 years old and his eyes are giving out.

ALL ABOUT WOMEN.

News and Notes Concerning the Unquiet Sex.

Miss Phoebe Meeks might well be the heroine of one of Mary Wilkins' romances. Fifty-six years ago, after a quarrel with her lover, she shut herself up in her house and has never been seen by the outside world since.

Although before her marriage she managed to support herself and her child on $3 a week. It has only taken seven years for Mrs. O'Neill to run through the enormous fortune of her husband, Henry J. O'Neill, "the barley king." He has filed a petition of bankruptcy, and she has fled to Paris, where she recently held a sensational sale of her effects. Among her weaknesses were 50 parasols, 150 pairs of silk stockings, 75 hats, besides gowns innumerable. Quite a modern Queen Elizabeth!

Mining pays better than acting. S. decided the Misses Browning, who two years ago threw up their engagements in a Dawson City theater and took a prospecting on their own account. Today they are in a fair way of becoming rich.

Here is a stenographer who is appreciated. Miss Mamie Muldoon has been appointed state auditor of Nebraska a salary of $1,800 a year.

Although they had only $1,000 left of their little fortune, Mrs. Edward M. David did not despair when physicians in Los Angeles said that her husband's life depended upon her removing him to a certain mountain peak. Putting on a workman's blouse and overalls, she built with her own hands a frame house on the desired spot.

The latest fad of the Newport cottagers is to serenade one another with brass bands.

Why is the ordinary waitress so abominable and why does she wear such an indescribable air of hauteur? These have been mysteries so far. Perhaps this may serve as an enlightenment. A young waitress in a well known Baden-Baden restaurant has published a book of poems. Her name is Grete Baldin and she is just 22. She has been "discovered" by several rich residents, who propose to give her the means to devote herself entirely to literature. Still it is to be hoped she may have few imitators on this side of the water, where there are more bad poets than good waitresses.

Mrs. James P. Kenochan is giving an example of how spiritualism can be used for practical purposes. A couple of years ago her husband was killed in a carriage accident on Fifth avenue. Since then he has appeared frequently to his wife, so she says, and guided her in her dealings on the Stock Exchange. Be this as it may, the results, far from being spiritual, have been most substantial.

The distinction of being Queen Victoria's greatest enemy belongs to Mme. de Bacharatt, wife of the Russian envoy to Morocco. Years ago, when she was a divorcee of doubtful reputation, she married secretly the Grand Duke of Hesse, whose wife, Queen Victoria's favorite daughter, had died a short time before. The marriage was only a few hours old when the queen heard of it. She immediately compelled the duke to divorce his wife, which the latter has never forgiven.

The saying that a woman never can hit anything is forcibly disproved by Miss Sophia Wright of Lafayette, Ind., who is one of the most remarkable dead shots in the United States.

The most coolly composed and best dressed woman at Lady Randolph Churchill's wedding is said to have been Lady Sarah Wilson. She is a striking example of Churchill's daughter. After unheard of adventures in South Africa, where she went as a war correspondent, and after narrowly escaping being shot as a spy, she managed to reach London just in time for her sister-in-law's wedding.

Ad example of the new woman in business is Mrs. Mary Clark Avery. At the death of her husband she took his position as vice president and general manager of a large brass and copper mill. Under her able management profits have increased nearly 5 per cent.

There is a bright young descendant of Marshal Ney, who is making a reputation as an archaeologist. Her name is Miss Alma Ney, and she has recently unearthed near her home at Fort Marble some fine specimens of the prehistoric gods of Texas.

One of Chicago's most successful politicians is Mrs. Minona Stearns Fitts. During a campaign she is untiring, and no man in her division stays home on election day.

It is the fad now to have cavies as pets. The cavy is a little South American animal of the guinea pig variety. Mrs. Edith Kingman of Woodstock, Ill., is the only woman in the United States to raise these animals.

Mrs. William Astor's niece, Miss Margaret Astor Chandler, has been sending complaints to the war department. She is a nurse in Manila, where she says there is a lack of supplies in the hospitals.

Lord Claudeboys has been appointed second secretary to the British embassy at Washington. Lady Claudeboys was a Miss Davis of New York.

For Men For Winter.

That fashion, now sanctions ready-to-wear garments for all society events and for business wear, is a source of great satisfaction to many Janesville men, and a testimonial for the merits of modern methods of making men's clothing. Now-a-days, as we do it, ready-to-wear garments mean but this: We have anticipated your measurement. Every desirable effect attained by custom tailors is put into the garment before we take your measure. You select the pattern, the style and other points desired.

There is a saving of time—VERY IMPORTANT frequently. There is no anxious fear that at the last moment, when you need the garment, you will find it not completed or unsatisfactory. Besides this there is the price saving—always an important point.

On the whole, the advantage seems to be on the side of the ready-to-wear garment.

LOST HIS FOOTING, FELL UNDER WHEELS

HORRIBLE DEATH OF FREIGHT CONDUCTOR MORRIS P. DEE.

Accident Occurred as the Freight Was Running Into Juda Last Evening—
Mutilation by the Cruel Iron Wheels
Was Terrible, and Death Ensued at Once.

Morris P. Dee, one of the most popular freight conductors on the Mineral Point division of the C. M. & St. P. R. R., was instantly killed by being run over by the cars near Juda, Wis., at 7 o'clock last evening.

Mr. Dee left home on Sunday morning on his regular run between Mineral Point and this city. The outward trip was made without anything out of the ordinary happening. He left Mineral Point for the return trip yesterday about noon.

When the train pulled into Juda Conductor Dee was standing on the ladder on the side of the second box-car back of the engine. While reaching for way bills he lost his footing and fell beneath the wheels and was almost instantly killed. The train was stopped as soon as possible and the lifeless body taken from under the train. It was placed in the baggage wagon and brought to this city. The patrol wagon was called and the body taken to D. Ryan's undertaking establishment on South Main street where it was prepared for burial.

The scalp was badly cut, and the right side of the face, between the eye and the chin was crushed and several teeth knocked out, the left arm badly cut near the shoulder and the right leg cut in two below the knee. There was also a bad cut on the front of the left leg between the hip and knee. The deceased had been an employe of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. for thirteen years and was one of its most trusted employes.

Mr. Dee is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dee of West Milwaukee street. He has been a resident of Janesville since childhood and he has a large number of friends who will be shocked to hear of his sad ending. His genial nature and pleasant ways have made him liked by all who came in contact with him. He was thirty years of age and leaves a wife and a three-year-old daughter, besides three brothers and three sisters to mourn his loss. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Dee was a member of the Mineral Point lodge of Railway Trainmen, a member of the Knights of Pythias and A. O. U. W. lodges of this city, and in the latter lodge was insured for $2,000. The deceased resided at 51 Terrace street. The remains arrived in this city about 9:30 o'clock last night.

The funeral services will be held from St. Patrick's church on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

A. O. U. W. Attention.—All members are requested to assemble in their hall tonight at 7:30 p. m. to take action relative to the funeral of our late Brother Morris Dee. G. W. TYLER, M. W.

GEN. JOSEPH B. DOE CLOSES CAMPAIGN

Drew a Large Audience to the Opera House Last Night—Given a Warm Reception.

The closing campaign speech in the democratic cause was made last evening at the Myers Grand Opera House by General Joseph B. Doe of Milwaukee.

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted General Doe when he stepped upon the stage. The Opera House was filled with representative democrats who had gathered there at this time to hear any new facts that Gen. Doe might present and give him a warm welcome on his return to his native city.

When General Doe appeared on the stage he was greeted with great applause and after a selection by the Imperial band J. L. Mahoney stepped to dueling General Doe. Mr. Mahoney stating that it was a time honored custom for the gentleman that introduced the speaker to air his views on the subject, but in view of the magnificent audience that had assembled and the prominence of the speaker he would refrain from doing more than to present General Doe.

In opening his remarks General Doe stated that it was too late to go into details, that at the present time the case was all in, the arguments had been made and all we could do was to wait for the verdict of the jury.

He quoted from the speeches of Senator Spooner and Senator Charles published in the Milwaukee Sentinel, showing the way senators had of explaining some things and how widely they differed in statements made at different times. A short time ago they were preaching the same doctrine now advanced by the democrats. The speaker asked shall true representative government perish or shall we have a government of syndicates governed by syndicates or a government of the people by the people.

A large number of General Doe's friends remained after the speech was finished to shake hands and cordially greet their fellow townsman.

Volney Atwood of Green Bay spent Sunday with his parents in this city.

JANESVILLE'S VOTERS TURN OUT STRONG

HEAVY BALLOTING THROUGH-OUT THE FORENOON.

Figures for the Returns at 3 O'clock,
Gathered by Gazette Reporters,
Compared with the Vote of 1896—
Weather Conditions Not Favorable—Returns Displayed Tonight.

Although the weather has not been favorable to get voters out today, a large vote has been polled. Republicans are showing the democrats that the statement that if it was a stormy day the democrats would win is not true. The time that voters were kept at home by the storms has come to be a thing of the past.

In old times when the facilities of transportation were limited the weather often made a difference, but in these later times no one should be kept at home by a storm unless it is unusually severe.

The returns at three o'clock this afternoon show that the number of votes cast in the different ways compared with the vote of 1896 was as follows:

	1896.	1900.
First Precinct.....	218	176
Second Precinct.....	366	275
Third Precinct.....	180	165
Fourth Precinct.....	275	235
Fifth Precinct.....	350	315
Sixth Precinct.....	280	255
Seventh Precinct.....	302	280
Total.....	2,731	2,233

Arrangements have been made to show election returns on a canvass hung opposite the Gazette office on Main street. A stereopticon has been secured and the returns in large sized figures will be shown on the canvass. Returns will be received through the news agencies, telephone and telegraph companies. The public will be given the returns from different points as soon as received.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB FORMED LAST NIGHT

About Thirty Gathered at the Congregational Church—Edward Petersen Elected Chairman.

In response to invitations issued by the social club of the congregational church about thirty young men met in the church parlors of the church at 8:30 o'clock last night. The occasion was to form a young men's club, something on the order of the Twilight club and it was entirely successful.

At a quarter before seven they sat down to a daintily served banquet by Supt. D. D. Mayne, Chas. S. Cleland and Charles Reynolds. Everything that goes to make up an excellent supper was on the table and the young men did justice to all the good things. The supper was arranged by the ladies in the afternoon, but left for the young men to serve.

After the good things were disposed of D. D. Mayne spoke on the object of the club and then appointed Edward Petersen chairman for the evening. The subject under discussion was the possibility of peace among nations and was ably discussed by nearly all those present.

The subject chosen for the next meeting to be held the first Monday in December was chosen "Is there the Possibilities for Young Men now as Formerly?"

Harry McNamara was chosen leader for the next meeting.

UNKNOWN MAN CUT IN PIECES AT OREGON

Evidently Fell from the Train While Stealing a Ride—No Clue to His Identity.

The section crew on the C. & N. W. R. R. at Oregon, Wis., discovered the body of an unknown man lying beside the track about a quarter of a mile from Oregon. From the appearance of the track the body must have been dragged some distance after the man fell. His right leg was cut off at the hip and his left at the foot. There were numerous other cuts and bruises on the body. No one seemed to know the man. A card in his pocket showed that he belonged to a cigar makers' union and his hat bore the mark of a Belvidere hatter. It is supposed that he was stealing ride on some freight train and lost his hold and fell under the wheels. The body was taken to Oregon by the section men.

Later—The name of the man killed by the cars at Oregon last night was Herman Berg of St. Louis, Mo. He was thirty-six years of age and was a native of Hamburg, Germany. He had no relatives in this country except an uncle in St. Louis. He was well known in this city having worked here in McKeligue's cigar factory for two weeks about two months ago.

He was in the city last night and was talking with Chief of Police Hogan and Patrick McKeligue. He was on his way to Madison where he expected to get work. He had been a member of the cigar makers' union for fourteen years and had $350.00 benefit money coming to him. The remains were shipped to Madison and will be buried by the cigar makers' union of that city.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

Miss Anna Cox spent Sunday with relatives in Beloit.

Miss Jeanette Shortney is spending the week with relatives in Durand, Ill. Howard Hoover is home to vote. He is a firm believer in McKinley and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown welcomed a baby girl to their family circle at 213 S. Main street Sunday morning.

Mrs. Howard F. Bliss left this city yesterday for El Paso, Tex., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilmarth for a few weeks.

General Joseph B. Doe returned to Milwaukee this morning at 10:40. He was quartered at the Grand Hotel during his stay in this city.

Miles Bliven, who resides on a farm near Edgerton, raised a remarkable crop of tobacco this year. On three-quarters of an acre of ground he raised 2,495 pounds of tobacco, which he sold for 8 1/4 cents per pound. Two hundred and sixty dollars is a remarkable yield for three-quarters of an acre of ground.

Elmore Elliot Peake, a son of the Rev. T. DeWitt Peake, who formerly resided in this city, has published a novel called the "Darlingtons" which is favorably commented upon by critics in the magazines. The first edition of 5,000 copies were sold in advance. Mr. Peake's many Janesville friends are pleased to hear of his success.

Masons Attention!

Tonight being the regular communication of Western Star Lodge No. 14, it is hoped that all members will make an effort to attend. Arrangements have been made to receive the returns of the election in the library. Visiting Master Masons will be welcome.

Oldest Christian Hymn.

The oldest Christian hymn was composed not only by a pagan, the Roman Emperor Adrian, but by a persecutor of Christians as well. The hymn begins with the line "Vital spark of heavenly love," and was written between the years 76 and 138 A. D., the dates of the emperor's birth and death. The hymn was paraphrased by Alexander Pope in the early part of the eighteenth century.

Log Rafts Menace Navigation.

There is said to be a serious menace to navigation on the Pacific coast from the practice of rafting logs from the Columbia river to San Francisco. Frequently, the rafts are broken up and logs set adrift so large that any of them might stave a hole in a vessel. It is said that congress will be asked next winter to prohibit this rafting.

Beds in Russia.

Beds are quite an innovation in Russia, and many well-to-do houses are still unprovided with them. Peasants sleep on the tops of their ovens; middle-class people and servants roll themselves up in sheepskins and lie down near stoves; soldiers rest upon wooden cots without bedding; and it is only within the last few years that students in schools have been allowed beds.

It Looks Like Celluloid.

A substitute for celluloid is now being produced from untanned leather boiled in oil, which is said to resemble celluloid in every particular. It is known as maricoid and shows a texture similar to horn, while it can be made flexible, and elastic or hard and unyielding. It will take a high polish readily and may be stamped or pressed into any desired shape.

American Slang Abroad.

Attempts to express the meaning of slang phrases in use in this country have produced two amusingly curious words in Europe—one in German and the other in French. The German word is "spread-eagleism," our "spread-eagleism," and is used for the emperor's policy. The French word is the verb "tomater," which means to "stone a fellow with tomatoes."

Origin of Lifting the Hat.

When the knight of the fourteenth century came into a company of friends, he lifted his helmet, signifying, "I am safe in the presence of friends." The days of the knight are no more, but the polite practice of lifting the hat is a survival of the knightly custom.

Salute Valiant Dead.

A large contingent of colonial troops were recently invited to pay a visit to Canterbury. They received an enthusiastic welcome and were shown all the sights, including, of course, the Cathedral. As they entered the aisle the Dead March in "Saul" was played on the organ to the memory of comrades who had fallen at the front. The colonials stood at attention, and saluted their valiant dead.

Spashed Wheel of Fortune.

Judge Miller of Mercer county, Pa., has an original way of dealing with gambling. He visited the county fair a few days ago, and seeing a big wheel of fortune took an ax and broke it into pieces. The other operators of gambling devices departed immediately.

Japanese Auctions Quiet.

Auctions in Japan are quietly conducted. The bidding is secret and silent, each person writing his bid on a slip of paper and dropping it into a box. When it appears that all the bids are in, the box is opened, and the highest bidder is named.

TO VOTE FOR THE TWELVE ELECTORS

Official Ballot Found to Be Misleading—Instructions from Chairman Bryant.

In printing the official ballot the state printers have printed it in such a way that it must be misleading to the voters. A square has been placed on the ticket under the name of each candidate for president and vice president.

They should not appear on the ticket as the vote is for the twelve electors. If you vote the straight ticket the squares under the names cut no figure but in case a split ticket is voted make a cross under the names of the twelve electors and pay no attention to the squares under the president and vice president's names.

The following letter was received by the chairman of the county committee from Chairman Bryant of the state central committee:

"Possibly the official ballot is misleading. There should have been no square under the names of the candidates for president and vice president, as we vote for the twelve electors. To vote a straight ticket the cross should be made in the large square at the top of the ballot and not in the small square under the president's name. Will you kindly see that some reliable man stays at the polls in your precinct all day to represent the republican party."

EXCITING FUNAWAY ON MILWAUKEE ST.

Horses on a Vegetable Wagon Belonging to Charles Rathgen, Make Things Fly Lively.

Charles Rathgen, who has a vegetable farm on Union avenue, had a runaway this morning that looked like it would end seriously for the outfit before the horse could be stopped. Rathgen was delivering some vegetables at the Grand Hotel when the horse became frightened at some passings conveyance and started on a run down Milwaukee street. Rathgen clung to the reins and kept the horse in the street and away from the teams and carriages that were passing up and down. After going as far as the Myers House he succeeded in stopping the horse. No damage was done to the rig.

Rathgen lost his hat and whip which were recovered after the horse was stopped. There was quite a crowd on the street at the time and for a few minutes there was considerable excitement.

CUBANS THANK UNCLE SAM.

Convention's First Act to Be Message of Gratitude.

TO FRAME A CONSTITUTION.

Governor General Wood Calls the Gathering to Order and Announces Its Objects
—Senior Llorente Chosen as Presiding Officer—Now in Session.

Havana, Nov. 6.—The Cuban constitutional convention was called to order by Governor General Wood in the Marti Theater at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Many evidences of friendship for the United States were given during the session. All proceedings were harmonious, and the delegates appeared satisfied with the outlook for the island's future. The following resolutions, signed by a majority of delegates as seconders, were presented to the temporary president of the convention just as it was adjourning for the day, and doubtless will be passed at the next session:

"The undersigned delegates propose that the assembly adopt the following resolutions:

"First—That a committee of the assembly proceed immediately to call on General Wood and manifest the satisfaction with which the delegates have seen him carry out the delicate mission entrusted to him.

"Second—That the same committee requests General Wood to telegraph to the President of the United States as follows:

"The delegates elected to the constitutional convention, assembled at their inaugural meeting, greet with profound gratitude and affection the President of the United States of North America, and they are satisfied with the honesty demonstrated in the fulfillment of the declarations made in favor of liberty and independence of the Cuban people."

Crowds at Opening Session.

Long before the hour for the convention to meet the theater was crowded. Senior Cisneros and General Rivera escorted General Wood to the platform, and he almost immediately opened the convention. He said:

"As military governor of the Island of Cuba, and representing the President of the United States, I call this convention to order. It will be your duty first of all to frame and adopt a constitution for Cuba, and, when that has been done, to formulate what in your opinion ought to be the relations between Cuba and the United States. The constitution must be adequate to secure stable, orderly, and free government. When you have formulated the relations which, in your opinion, ought to exist between Cuba and the United States, the government of the United States will doubtless take such action on its part as shall lead to a final and authoritative agreement between the people of the two countries to the promotion of their common interests."

Watched by the Whole World.

"All friends of Cuba will follow your deliberations with the deepest interest, earnestly desiring that you shall reach just conclusions, and that by the dignity, individual self-restraint, and wise conservatism which shall characterize your proceedings the capacity of the Cuban people for representative government may be signally illustrated. The fundamental distinction between true representative government and a dictatorship is that in the former every representative of the people, in whatever office, confines himself strictly within the limits of his defined powers. Without such restraint there cannot be free constitutional government. Under the order pursuant to which you have been elected and convened you have no duty and no authority to take part in the present government of the island. Your powers are strictly limited by the terms of that order."

Llorente Chosen to Preside.

The convention organized, with Senior Llorente, justice of the supreme court, as president, and Senior Villuendo as secretary. The following oath was then administered:

"We, delegates elected by the people of Cuba to the national constitutional convention, swear faithfully to fulfill the duties of our office. We publicly and solemnly renounce allegiance to or compact made with any state or nation, whether made directly or indirectly, swearing to the sovereignty of the free and independent people of Cuba, and swearing to respect the solution this convention may adopt, as well as the government established by the constitution." All of the thirty-one delegates were present. Senior Allemen, who said that the convention was "only a continuation of the fight for independence," moved that the regulations governing the old Cuban assembly at Yaya in 1896 be adopted. As nobody seemed familiar with them, the convention adjourned until today at 2 p. m., when copies will be furnished to the delegates.

Arrests for Fraud.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Marion county political committees were busy yesterday exposing alleged efforts toward corruption in the election in this city. The Democratic committee started in Sunday night by causing the arrest of William H. Evans on the charge of attempting to corrupt an election judge. Yesterday afternoon the republican committee made an affidavit for the arrest of John Banks, colored, who, according to its information, has been trying to bribe a Republican judge of election to sell a ballot.

March in "Mother Hubbards." Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Wheeling's "Mother Hubbard" parade the evening before presidential elections, when the members of the marching clubs of all parties come together and join in a great demonstration in honor of the woman's suffrage candidates for president, is unique and original with this city. Last night's affair, in honor of Mrs. Catt, was the largest on record, fully 2,000 marchers being in line. The real woman's suffragists, however, have on this occasion entered an emphatic protest against the demonstration, but the opposition seemed to add to the favor with which the public looked at it. Over 20,000 people lined the streets and laughed at the queer and ridiculous costumes the marchers wore.

Young Wife Is Killed. Chicago, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Beardsley, wife of Clarence B. Beardsley, manager of the liability department of the Travelers' Insurance company, was shot and killed with a revolver held in the hands of her husband and which was accidentally discharged. Mr. Beardsley had taken up the revolver to instruct his wife how to use it in an emergency ever arose.

SUNNY WOMEN.

Who has not known the woman whose disposition is described by that one word "sunny"? There's always a laugh lurking on her lips. Her cheeks are ever ready to dimple in smiles. Her household influence is as brightening and stimulating as the sunshine. Nothing can be crueller than to have this sunshine blotted out by disease. But this is a common cruelty. The young wife who was the sunshine of the home becomes its shadow. Every young wife should know the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the protection and preservation of the health. It promotes regularity, dries the drains which enfeeble body and mind, and cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It nourishes the nervous system and gives to the body the balance and buoyancy of perfect health. It is a strictly temperance medicine.

"I can say that your medicine cured me," writes Mrs. Maud Penney, of Stoutsville, Fairfield Co., Ohio. "I had suffered about twelve years from female weakness and I had almost given up, thinking there was no cure for me. Then I heard about Dr. Pierce's medicine and thought I would try it, and can say that seven bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me well. I am now able to do my own housework. I took about twelve bottles in all of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Took some of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription' and some of the 'Pleasant Pellets.'" because it is used externally in cases of the delicate situation of expectant mothers. It is a constant relief, robbing childbirth of its terrors. Internal remedies are dangerous. "Mother's Friend" is a blessing in a bottle. There is nothing like it.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

Doctors and Midwives Recommend "Mother's Friend"

"The mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' at my drug store before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly. All mothers who have used it agree their labor was shorter and less painful."

In the United States, now enjoying food cooked in the MAJESTIC, affirm that the half has not been said in its praise. The manufacturers of this range pledge themselves that all parts of the MAJESTIC, except the fire-box, are made of steel and malleable iron, and purchasers are assured that it is as good and as honest as skilled labor and money can produce. If the parts now in malleable iron were (as in other so-called steel ranges) made of cast iron, the price could be greatly reduced; but the MAJESTIC is not made with a view to furnishing extra parts for repairs.

The cost of the stove isn't all there is of shrewd stove buying. The main point is the expense of running it. Many stoves look well and are sold at a reasonable price that in the end are very expensive. They don't give the heat. They use over much fuel. Half the heat goes up the chimney, making the half you get cost twice as much as it should. In our Acorn Base Burner every bit of fuel is utilized in making heat that isn't wasted. It is handsome in appearance and not high in price.
